

AFRICAN TAX OUTLOOK 2020

2020 edition

An ATAF Publication

Copyright notice

Copyright subsisting in this publication and in every part thereof.

This publication or any part thereof may not be reproduced, transmitted, transcribed or otherwise stored or translated into any language or computer language, in any form or by any means, without the prior written permission of the African Tax Administration Forum (ATAF), an international organisation with full legal standing and established, in terms of the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties, on 8 October 2012.

Any unauthorised reproduction or adaptation of this publication will constitute a copyright infringement and render the doer liable under both civil and criminal law.

Restrictions on use

The information contained in this publication constitutes privileged information belonging to ATAF, any member country of ATAF and its subsidiaries. This information is furnished in confidence with the understanding that it will not, without prior written permission from ATAF, be used for purposes other than for what is intended.

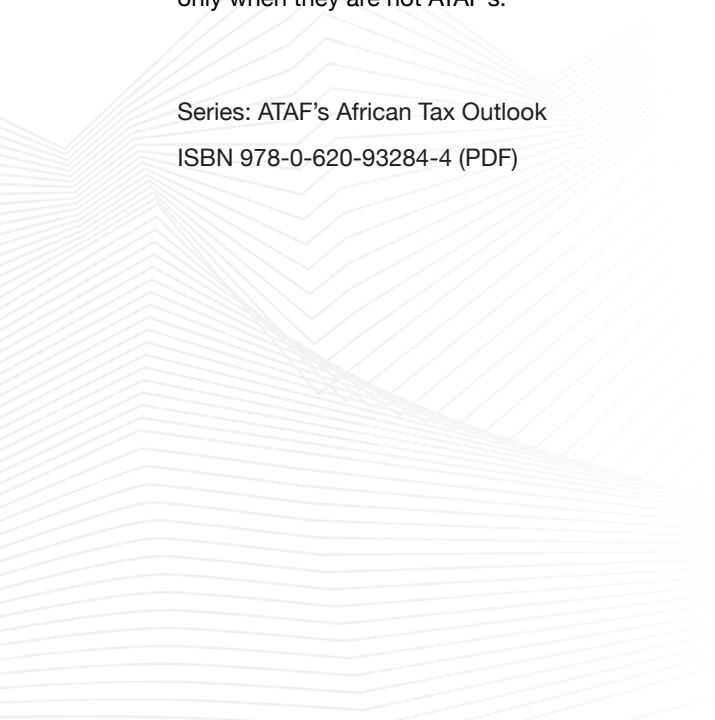

Conditions of access to the ATAF Databank

Outside users can access the ATAF Databank online and credit ATAF when making use of the data:
<https://ato.ataftax.org/atafdatabank>

The ATAF Databank provides the bulk of the data and statistic published in this 2020 edition of the African Tax Outlook. Accordingly, because ATAF Databank is the source of most figures and tables, sources are specified only when they are not ATAF's.

Series: ATAF's African Tax Outlook

ISBN 978-0-620-93284-4 (PDF)

2020 EDITION

ATAF Secretariat
Research directorate
Postnet Suite 430
Private Bag 15, Menlo Park
Pretoria 0102
South Africa

Telephone: +27 12 451 8800

E-Mail: research@ataftax.org

www.ataftax.org

Acknowledgements

This is the fifth edition of the African Tax Outlook (ATO) publication produced by the African Tax Administration Forum (ATAF), providing a comprehensive analysis of African revenue administrations. ATAF is grateful to all these 35 participating countries and would like to thank all the contributors for their invaluable assistance.

The ATO publication was prepared by a drafting team within the ATAF Research Department under the management of Dr Nara Monkam, Director Research and the overall direction of Mr Logan Wort, ATAF Executive Secretary. ATAF would particularly like to thank the drafting team for its hard work and diligence, with a special thanks to:

- Mr Frankie Mbuyamba (ATAF), tax statistics specialist, ATO managing editor. He led and coordinated the entire production process from collecting, cleaning, and analysing data to developing the storyline and drafting the publication. He also lead-managed the usage and maintenance of the ATO Online Data Portal.
- Ms Winile Ngobeni (South African Revenue Service [SARS]), senior revenue research analyst. She provided considerable quantitative input, drafting the chapter on the overall revenue performance of the participating countries.
- Mr Lawson Latevi (Togo Revenue Authority [OTR]), economist. He provided substantial quantitative analysis, drafting the chapters on tax and non-tax revenue and on tax stability and buoyancy.
- Ms Mercy Samantha Njolomole (Malawi Revenue Authority), research and statistics manager. She drafted the important chapter on structure, functions, and management aspects of tax administration.
- Mr Albert Essowé Padembana (Togo Revenue Authority [OTR]), economist. He provided analysis for the chapter on auditing and tax compliance within the tax administrations.
- Mr Ken Kincaid, technical editor. He coordinated the drafting of the chapters in English and French, enforced ATAF publishing specifications, and reviewed, edited, and rewrote the publication as necessary.

The 2020 edition of the ATO was internally reviewed by the following members of ATAF staff: Michael Masiya, Ezera Madzivanyika, Frank Kalizinje, Susan Nakato, Emeka Nwankwo, Nthabiseng Debeila, Moses Chamisa as well as by Aleksandar Dragojlovic of the German International Development Cooperation (GIZ), who provided valuable comments and suggestions.

The African Tax Outlook 2020 also benefited from the contribution of several reviewers in participating countries namely: Lamine Diallo (Senegal); Edward Groening and Bryan Mvuselelo Dluli (Eswatini); Laban Gasweswe Masunga (Tanzania); OURO-ADOÏ Abdelganiou (Togo); Lary Tina Rakotonindrainy (Madagascar) and Philip Kargbo (Sierra-Leone). The ATAF Secretariat is grateful for their invaluable contribution.

The ATAF Secretariat wishes to extend its sincere thanks to its staff for their support and commitment in producing this 2020 edition of its flagship publication. They were an active part of the entire production process from data collection, quality assurance and analysis to interpretation during peer-learning and validation webinars, translation and design.

Finally, the ATAF would like to express its gratitude for the financial and technical support provided by partners – namely, the German International Development Cooperation (GIZ); the Austrian Development Agency; the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Finland; Irish Aid, Department of Foreign Affairs; the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands (Minbuza); the State Secretariat of Economic Affairs Switzerland (SECO); Open Society Initiative for West Africa (OSIWA); the African Development Bank Group (AfDB); the Ford Foundation; the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation; Trust Africa; Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO) and Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation (NORAD).