ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The African Tax Administration Forum (ATAF) is grateful to the ATAF Member tax authorities that contributed to this Guidelines' development. We would particularly like to thank them for providing wvaluable resources, and allowing their officials to participate in workshops. Without the commitment of the ATAF member tax authorities to participate in the workshops and engagements, the preparation of these Guidelines would not have been possible.

For their hard work and diligence, thanks to Mr. Peter Ruyumbu and Ms. Dorothy Kang'oro Consultants on the ATAF Taxpayer Education, Integrity and Advisory Project, for developing and drafting the Guidelines.

We would also like to acknowledge Ms. Caroline Mutayabarwa and Mrs. Nthabiseng Debeila who painstakingly reviewed the Guidelines' drafts to ensure they addressed the ATAF member countries' needs and provided useful suggestions throughout the process.

Furthermore, thanks to Ms Mary Baine, ATAF Director Tax Programmes for her continued guidance and leadership.

Of course, none of the above would have been possible without the ATAF secretariat staff's unwavering commitment, who worked tirelessly to ensure that workshops, translation, and design went smoothly.

We also remain, as ever, grateful for the support and generous funding of our development partner, the African Development Bank Group (AfDB), who funded the Taxpayer Education, Integrity, and Advisory activity.
